Dojo Rich - Organic Trance - One Man Band

Immerse yourself in the unique world of Dojo Rich, the one-man-band musician from Vienna. Dojo Rich creates captivating soundscapes in the genre of "Organic Trance," crafted through the simultaneous live performance of Didgeridoo, Cajon, Framedrums, Darabukka, and Aquadrum – all without the use of a loop player or samples.

About Dojo Rich:

Born and raised in Vienna, Dojo Rich has taken an unconventional musical journey. After training as a hairdresser, he pursued studies in music and movement pedagogy with a focus on instrumental improvisation and movement accompaniment. This diverse background forms the foundation for his impressive live performances.

The Journey:

After studying in Vienna, Dojo Rich moved to Trossingen, Germany, and later to Basel, Switzerland, where he studied early music and the cornetto. However, feeling constrained by the traditional concert world, he wanted to play music for people who wanted to dance. Thus, Dojo Rich was born. He began his musical journey with a Cajon, Didgeridoo, and Aquadrum mounted on a bicycle, touring Switzerland and Germany. For three years, a motorhome accompanied him, guiding him and his instruments across Europe. Since August 2022, he has been living and creating in Vienna, developing his musical vision and sharing his unique performance with the world.

The Stage Show:

Dojo Rich's stage presence is an artistic fusion of his education and his love for music. During his live performances, he combines Didgeridoo, Cajon, Framedrums, Darabukka, and Aquadrum in a captivating interplay that transports the audience into a world of rhythmic diversity. Everything you hear is created in real-time without the use of a loop player or samples – an impressive display of musical virtuosity.
